

The Kerry cross country season is into full swing with the the Intermediate/masters & uneven ages being held in Beaufort on Sunday last in good conditions for this time of year. The quality of racing was again high with some fantastic displays by some extremely talented distance runners. James Doran of An Riocht AC had a fine run to claim the intermediate mens 8km title with relative newcomer Ciaran Reed also Riocht in second and last weeks novice winner Simon Mangan in 3rd. Mary O Connor An Riocht took the womens 4km title with Brid Stack Gneeveguilla not far behind taking second and Caroline Murphy also Gneeveguilla taking third.

The standout athlete in the juvenile section had to be Darragh Lowth St Brendan's AC who decimated the field in the U11 800m; other fine performances came from Sophie Lynch Lios tuathail in the girls u11, Cillian O Donovan Iveragh U15, Aaron Quigley Iveragh U17 and Brigid Dennehy Iveragh U17.

The overall standings see Kenmare still hold a commanding lead over Iveragh with Gneeveguilla in third. In the division two Farranfore Mainevalley hold the slimist of margins by one point over Spa Muckcross going into the final day on October 31st with the juvenile relays.
